NOTE: Switzerland possesses four official languages — French, German, Italian, and Rhaeto-Romansch — of which the first three are used extensively in education. The list below gives the name of each completion award in the language or languages known to be used for it. Where multiple languages are listed, the order of presentation is French, German, and Italian. (Italian titles are listed less frequently than French and German titles because no Italian-speaking university-level institution currently exists.)
